Croeso Welcome

Croeso Welcome

A group of eleven diverse children, both boys and girls, are standing in a line in front of a school building. They are all wearing blue school sweaters over white collared shirts. The children have various ethnicities and are dressed in different styles of clothing, including a blue headband, a white cap, a blue kippah, and a white hijab. They are all smiling and looking towards the camera. The building behind them has a large sign that reads 'Croeso Welcome' in yellow text on a blue background. The sign is mounted on a light-colored wall. There are several windows visible in the background, and a small yellow and blue shield-shaped logo is visible on the wall above the sign.

About Aled and Siân

Aled and Siân love doing exciting things and exploring the world around them. In the Exploring Our World series Aled and Siân share some of their experiences with their Christian, Hindu, Jewish and Muslim friends. Aled and Siân also enjoy listening to their friends' stories, and learn about how these relate to their own. This helps the friends get to know one another better.

The series takes seriously the social significance of religion and is based on extensive research into how children learn about themselves, others and the world in which they live.

To support this storybook series, there is a large range of free downloadable resources for children and teachers available at hwb.wales.gov.uk/Resources and st-marys-centre.org.uk

The storybooks and activities are devised for 3- to 5-year-olds and 5- to 7-year-olds, but the downloadable resources make the series relevant for younger and older children too.
